

NEWS RELEASE

UPDATED 4th April, 2025

Bloomin' Begonia Bonanza – Melbourne's newest floral spectacular opens at the Blue Lotus Water Garden.

Attention all flower lovers, the team at the Blue Lotus Water Garden in the Yarra Valley has put together an exciting new floral event that runs from 21st March to 21st April. The inaugural Bloomin' Begonias and the Autumn Flower Season showcases Melbourne's largest display of stunning begonia flowers spread throughout 14 acres of landscaped water gardens.

A real feature of the new season is our "Trail of Begonias" that winds it's way through 1km of garden paths containing over 300 hanging baskets (possibly the largest floral hanging basket display in the country). Adding to the experience is thousands of magnificent autumn blooms planted throughout the grounds including sunflowers, salvias, impatiens and more.

Best of all, the display of waterlily flowers the gardens are so famous for continue to put on a show. Especially the Giant Amazon Waterlilies (Victoria cruziana) with their impressive lily pads and unique flowers.

Family Fun over the April School Holidays

From Dinosaurs to Easter Bunnies the gardens are providing a great line up of entertainment on weekends and at Easter for kids of all ages. Details about these events is available at the following links:
